

Design is about finding solutions that fit the client's need in the best way possible. Designs should be custom and more personalized to you. That is why each announcement or invitation made by Tied with Strings is custom and made just for you. We have ideas and samples to help you get started but the end result will be a custom product made specifically for you as a couple and for your special day. We will go through the creation process together. To help reduce your stress and things that you will need to do, I will: have you answer some questions to get to know you and to know about your special day, create a few samples for you, help you choose a sample, refine it and finish it up, work with the printer to get it printed for you, provide envelopes, and then mail this all to you in a fun package wrapped in paper and Tied with Strings. :)
